OLD BUSINESS

1. Seniors Program Report: Senior luncheon is tomorrow, Dec 12th. Spaghetti with meat sauce is on the menu and School Band will perform. A record of 50 Seniors attended last months luncheon!
2. Financial Report: Ben provided committee members with an Expense Summary Report. Senior line is up a bit due to paying for shopping trip. Ben is starting to construct the '18/'19 budget.
3. Youth Basketball: is underway with good coaches and teams.
5/6 Boys are 1/1
5/6 Girls are 1/0
3/4 Start this Saturday and all of ours teams have home games
K-2 Clinics start next month in January
4. Adult Programs Report:
Volleyball: is going strong and plan to continue it through winter
Pickleball: Ben hosted a clinic/lesson/informational last week for those who wanted to about the game.
Basketball: adult play at night might start up in a couple months. No gym time available right now.
Cornhole: Gary suggested to start up this fun game. Ben thinks February thru March will be a good time to start.
5. Winter Programs: Ski Club starts January 4th weather permitting.
Ice Rink is scheduled for set up on December 21st at 3 PM. Benches are needed so Ben suggested to use the ones at the Landing Field.
6. 2017-18 Goals: While at Collins Park, Missy noticed some equipment is run down, especially the Merry Go Round. The committee discussed repair costs vs replacing it. We have money to use so committee would like to replace it. Bryan made a motion for 'Ben to take the information to Tim & Elizabeth and propose replacing the Merry Go Round at Collins Park. Summer 2nd the motion and all in favor. Also, Missy made a motion to 'Get a playhouse and/or boat to add to Collins Park'. Bryan 2nd and all in favor.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Mussel Ridge: Dates are March 16, 17, 18. Rules are as follows:
Tourney is for 3rd and 4th graders, teams tbd, 4 teams on each side, format from past weeks, Admission $2 Friday & Sunday, $4 Saturday (kids free), $150 per team entry fee includes a t-shirt for each player, 9 ft hoop, 4 six minute quarters and Art Contest as usual. Ad prices will remain the same, but this year when a sponsor buys a full page ad, their name will be printed on the back of the t-shirt.
2. Red Claws Trip: Trip on a coach bus for $25. Sold 13 seats out of 50 so far. St. George kids have opportunity to be a part of the Living Flag or the High Five.

3. Oceanside Little League: will be making a vote whether to make split for ages 9/10 and 11/12 levels. Ben is doing the team scheduling, therefore fees are waived for St. George. Yay Ben!
4. Future Community Trips: Being considered is a UMO hockey game again at end of February. Ben recommended the Rec Dept plan 2 trips and The Boosters to sponsor all other trip above 2.
