OLD BUSINESS

1. Seniors Program Report

31 Seniors attended the recent luncheon and enjoyed being entertained by the School Chorus. Had an organization meeting and will announce upcoming events soon.

2. Financial Report'

Seniors is negative as expected and was explained why at the last meeting. Children's balance is down further than expected. Ben will look into it and get back to us as to why. Still need to pay for Little League.

3. 2017 Community Trip Update

Regarding transportation for trip to Boston in April, Missy sent an inquiry email to Amtrak Downeaster about a group rate. Bus is going to be too expensive. She hasn't heard back from them yet.

4. Ski and Skate Report

Winter season came to a halt due to warm temps and weather. Camden Snow Bowl cancelled the last 2 Thursdays. Skating Rink is put away thanks to Ben, except for the liner which is frozen. The sand bags will be picked up and put away by Junior Firefighters.

5. Mussel Ridge review of plans

The Program is essentially done thanks to the help of Tracy Leavitt. $2300 has been generated from the sale of ads in the Program. Most concession shopping was done by Joanna and Ann on Sunday. Joanna will purchase the rest on Friday, which is mostly the perishable items. Committee had more discussion about food, admission prices, etc. Looks like donations of hot food and baked goods will be coming in also.

6. Little League Registration

Wednesday, March 15th 6-8 PM is Registration/Sign Ups. There is an online registration available for those who can't make it.

Saturday, March 25th are tryouts.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Youth Baseball/Softball

Little League Coaches from last year are returning: Softball- Jolie Hatch, Jed Miller, and Tracy Leavitt (Books). Baseball-Maddox's, JT Tobin.

Minor League: Baseball- Morgan Hilliard asked to move up and Josh is done, so an assistant is needed.

Softball- need coaches and assistants.

T-Ball coaches are needed also.

2. Dugout Project

No news, waiting to hear back from Justin Long and David Miller.

3. Swim Club/St. George Night at Pen Bay Y

Getting great feedback from teachers & kids about 2nd Grade swimming.

Family nights are 3/30 & 4/6 from 5-8 PM $5 per person or $20 per family with full use of the facility.

4. Field Clean up day

Clean up day is scheduled for April 15th (22nd is rain date).

The to do list is: Paint concession building, paint new dugouts if they are done, set outfield fence, shovel goose poop, take down batting cage netting. Ben will look into a price for new netting.

5. Future Trip Discussion

None. Will wait to hear back from Amtrak for April trip. Sea Dogs could be a replacement trip. Gary recommended a Red Claws game as they are kid orientated.
